

Mission

To improve our community through educational and outreach programs, to protect our environment through ethical and responsible chemistry, and to provide a networking and collaboration platform for local chemical professionals.